You Are...

You Have Been...

You Will Be...

By Patricia Hayes

You're a realist but yet in your daydreams you are an idealist. You have a romantic nature when you feel someone cares about you and understands you. You are a tender and affectionate when you experience a "special feeling" with someone. There are few people who have inspired you in your life and you remember who they are even though you have learned from many.

You have an exceptional mind. You have an unusual ability of knowing about people. Many times you can tell if a person is a hostile, bitter person, or if they are a happy person without ever saying a word to them. You know immediately if someone is sincere or if they are phony and one thing you can't stand is "phoniness".

You are an unusual individual. You are really very special. You are a sharing person in every way if you feel close to a person. There are many people in your life, but few you really feel are your friends. Once you make a friend, you keep them for a long time and feel deeply towards them. It takes people awhile to get to know you but if they take the time, they grow to love you.

You are a deep person with a tremendous capacity for feeling. There are a very few people whom you really trust, not with your possessions but with your emotions, your thoughts and your deepest feelings. Many of your thoughts and feelings you share with no one, not that you wouldn't, but you feel people wouldn't be interested or they would not understand.

You are a sensitive individual who sometimes takes what people say to you personally and your feelings get hurt. Those you love the most seem to upset you the most. At times you are aware of an empty spot within you that gnaws at you. It's an indescribable feeling and you don't really know what to do about it.

You have a great need for love and the feeling of being needed.

Your deepest frustrations stem from the relationships of those you love.

Sometimes you wish they could get inside you to feel how you're feeling so they could help give you what you're missing. But these are things you don't talk about and that you keep to yourself.

You've tried at times, but those closest to you do not seem to understand nor are they able to give you what you need. Sometimes you feel all alone as if it's you against the world. You feel this because of your tremendous sensitivity.

Sometimes you meet someone and instantly feel like you have known them all of your life. You wonder to yourself if they feel the same way and you wonder why you feel so comfortable without really knowing them. Other times you meet a person and immediately know that you want nothing to do with that individual.

You have an amazing inner strength that has gotten you through many unpleasant experiences. You have been hurt deeply in your life but you have been able to pull yourself through.

You're a patient person when you feel someone is trying, but if you feel a person doesn't care, you become irritated and impatient with them. You have a great concern for those you love, and would do anything for their welfare. If someone talks about one you love, you come to their defense even though you yourself talk about them.

You care about people's needs and you wish you could do more to help those that don't have what you do. Many times you feel your hands are tied and you feel very ineffective in such situations. Your greatest frustrations come from not being able to accomplish what you want.

You can tell if a person is interested in what you're saying. You can tell if they are half there or if you have their full attention.

You are a creative person and enjoy your own ideas. You feel the happiest when you have accomplished something you enjoyed doing.

You are tremendously intuitive even though you don't always listen to your intuition.

You have had experiences that you cannot explain. Sometimes you know who is on the phone when it rings. Other times you know what people are going to say even before they say it. You seem to know if someone is troubled or aggravated even if there is no visible sign.

You have a tremendous imagination and many times you wish that you had more opportunity to express and implement your ideas. When you put your mind to it, there isn't anything you can't do.

You have a curious mind and enjoy learning. You wish you had more time to investigate and explore various interests.

You love nature and many times you feel best when you see the beauty of nature. Most of the time, your inspirations come to you when you are doing menial tasks and your mind is free to wander into unknown dimensions.

You recognize the difference between conscious thought, that function of your mind that methodically thinks things through and that flash of inspiration that seems to come to you out of the blue.

You are not a religious person in the traditional sense but you have your own set of values and priorities and you use these to live your life. You are very philosophical and think much more about the meaning of things than you ever let on.

You are happiest when you have a goal.

You appreciate beauty and fine things and it is very important for you to have something of beauty around you.

You respect life and always feel a certain inner loss when you hear of the death of someone even if it is a stranger. You do not fear death yourself, but you are concerned about the way in which you will die. If you could choose the way of your death, it would be to die in your sleep. You have mixed emotions about what happens to you after you die, but if a person dies you find yourself giving assurance of their welfare.

You have a calming effect in the most serious situations. You can create harmony from chaos when you have to. Your inner strength has influenced and touched many people in your life.

You are a perceptive person. Many times you recognize the truth and keep silent.

You are coming into a new period in your life. You have felt the intensity of pain. Now you desire to experience joy, accomplishment and harmony.

You have a great capacity for love. The intensity of your love is Divine. You are an inspiration to many people.

You know it but you cannot understand why more people do not recognize it. It is only because they have not experienced the intensity of your love. They cannot see all of you as you can see within yourself.

You are beginning to feel love and joy and harmony more and will begin feeling the intensity of these feelings increasing. You have mistrusted these feelings because they do not seem as real as pain and disharmony. They are.

You are an intense person and you will know the intensity of good feelings.

You will create good feelings in others whenever you can. You know how to do that for you know what it takes to experience good feelings.

You know that encouragement and doing those things you love make you feel good.

You have the potential of greatness and your love and healing ability can change society. Begin to share your thoughts and philosophical wanderings. Do not feel that people will not understand. People are ready to hear what you have to say. Create rapport with everyone you meet. Share warmth and loving thoughts with them and they will be touched by your wisdom, your mind and the vision of your wisdom that you will share with them. You are a rare person. I love your spirit and the light in your eyes.

You're an exciting person in many ways. You're immensely intuitive, you have experienced the intensity of love and your understanding is far-reaching. You have the most exciting years of your life ahead of you. You've always had a sense of adventure. There will be new people entering your life who will give you the opportunity to share your philosophical thoughts. In the next three years you will meet someone who will stimulate your mind to such an extent that you will be accomplishing things you never thought possible.

You will be teaching people without ever letting them know you are a teacher, for your concern for mankind will far surpass your need for self-satisfaction. You have a healthy ego and never want to get rid of it for it is your individual expression of what you desire to accomplish.

You're perspective about your life and values has changed radically in the last few years. The greatest change has been in the past nine months. You have had strong intuitive feelings that you do have a purpose, but you do not know specifically what it is. You are a conscientious person and want to be sure that what you do is beneficial.

You are a rebel in the real sense of the word for you have always secretly seen the nonsense in the conformity of people.

You trust in the quality of your mind more than anyone you know and, because of the trust and the knowledge of your intent, you accept your ideas and insights with more curiosity and interest every day.

You are a creator. You have the power to make people feel good or miserable. You have accomplished both feelings many times by never saying a word. Your inner strength and your inner thoughts are so powerful that you affect people every time you are around them.

Sometimes you turn off or keep your thoughts and energy within yourself.

You are afraid of the power you have misused in the past. You are wiser now. You have discovered a new level of love within yourself.

You are a special light that scatters your energy here and there.

You know it must be focused to accomplish those goals that you have, but you do not know how.

You are special and you've always known that. With the intensity of your love and harmony, you can heal illness and restore health. You can make a difference-in our world.

... You Have Been

You have been put down since you were a child. The "specialness" within you has been hidden within a shell of protection for the most part. It is no wonder you have been put down in so many subtle ways that you could not have fulfilled your potential even though you wanted to. From a very early time of your life people have afflicted you with self-doubt. People have reached into you and allowed you to see every weakness that you have had. They have freely expressed these weaknesses under the guise of concern and helpful criticism.

You have reacted in many ways. Sometimes you have made excuses for your weakness. Other times you considered the source of the criticism, and other times you have taken a look at what was said and have felt the loneliness and despair of yourself. But each time this has happened (and it has been more times in your life than you'd care to think about) your beauty and "specialness" has retreated further into yourself. Many times the "downers" have not been what people have said to you, but what they have not said.

People's disinterest in what you feel and think has kept them from knowing you. People's lack of perception blinds them to your vast capabilities and your beautiful qualities. It isn't any wonder that you haven't felt free. You haven't been free. You have an ocean full of love that has been desperately trying to express itself without recognition. Your wisdom has been caged within your mind because of lack of understanding. You have been ignored and many times have done ridiculous things so that someone would notice you. You have done everything in your power to catch the attention of someone and have gone unnoticed.

Your ideas, which are one of your most precious possessions, have been rejected, laughed at and misunderstood. This has been one of the greatest causes of your frustration.

As a child you have been conditioned to conform to the thoughts and feelings of those closest to you. Many of those thoughts and feelings are still affecting you even though they are not your own. Feelings of guilt, fear and hostility have remained with you and have caused you to feel anxiety, but you haven't been able to pinpoint the source.

You have been told all your life how you should react and feel towards people and circumstances. You have rebelled when others tried to capture your spirit. You have been told what is right and wrong and have been constantly judged. You have been coldly analyzed by people who have desired to manipulate you to conform to their desires. You have been manipulated by people both in your public life and your personal life and at times have felt very used.

You have lived in a non-feeling world for the majority of your life.

You have been analyzed by the educators of our world and have been led to believe without them you are nothing. You have been confused by the religious movements of our time and have been influenced to accept the belief of others, rather than encouraged to go within and find your own truth.

You have been making tremendous progress even though at times you do not feel it. The problem is that you are focused on the dreams ahead and you have failed to look behind you to see how much progress you have already made. You have come a long way. Your awareness has increased. Your sensitivity far surpasses what it used to be. Your desire to love and be loved is greater than ever. You know you are ready for a major transition, but you have not fully understood what more you can do other than what you have been doing.

You have been partially blind to the totality of yourself. You have locked the "specialness" that holds your genius deep within your heart. The old pattern of being hurt or hurting someone has forced you to separate from others. You feel the isolation.

Unlock your heart and your loving energy. Release the loving energy from your eyes and allow your warmth and acceptance to flow to each one you meet. Your heart chakra holds your greatness, your love of God and your knowledge of Oneness with all. You begin to create harmony in your home and work. You feel worthy and begin to radiate love and beauty to all you meet.

Your "specialness" is recognized by others. You have light within yourself and others can truly see your wisdom. You are free to receive for you have taken down the barriers that protected your heart. There is nothing to fear. Your heart chakra glows and your greater Self is in control. You are free to love and be loved.

...You Will Be

You will be fulfilled.

You will be more aware of yourself as an energy than a physical body, and you will learn to focus your energy to accomplish those things that you want. The power and potential of your mind is increasing daily and you will be responsible for an innovative trend in the world. You will be using your creativity as you never have before.

Fewer and fewer of your thought processes will come from habitual thinking. Your insight will be channeled through the higher dimensions of your mind and you will be directing your life as you have always wanted to. You will be discovering a new and exciting you, and life will take on a new meaning and purpose as you learn to direct your energy.

You will find love as you have always dreamed, for you will stop looking for it and find it where you least expect it. You will finally be able to express your most sacred thoughts and desires to those you want to reach, for they will be receptive and will be able to see your beauty and wisdom. You will no longer be affected by the problems of others that cause you pain and suffering, for very soon you will be given secrets to create happiness and harmony in your personal life as well as in your social and financial lives.

Your family will understand those things about you that you have always wanted them to and they will see you as the person you have become, rather than the biased image they now have of you.

You will be striving towards goals you haven't yet imagined. And, because of the rapid expansion of your mind, new vision will solve those unsolvable problems about which you have had so much worry.

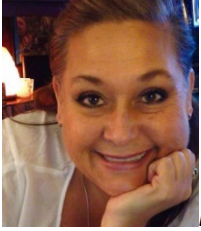

You will sleep less, eat less and have many more hours to enjoy those things you love. You will have more peace of mind and be more satisfied and fulfilled than you ever thought possible. As your vision expands, so will your goals and your purposes.

You will be learning fascinating things about yourself, from both from your higher mind and from those who are attracted to you. You will be able to look into someone's eyes and see their "specialness", and help them find it as you did.

You will be free to accept your mistakes and understand they are learning experiences. You will respond to your abilities. You will be a healing channel in our world.

THANKFUL FOR THE POWER OF SPIRITUAL HEALING

By Jen Stanford

Dear Delphi Family ~

Thank you for all you bring to each day, for you make every day special for those around you. Today, I am thankful for Spiritual Healing... a restoration of harmony vital to body-heart-mind health. Because my recent report from a medical specialist reflects results of Spiritual Healing, I am sharing a personal experience.

Prior to consulting a hepatologist, I experienced chronic fatigue. As a result of lab tests, my primary care physician referred me to a gastroenterologist and subsequently a hematologist who found through testing that my blood platelets and white blood count were very low; my spleen was determined three times normal size, and a liver scan indicated advanced liver disease.

I began to own that diagnosis, as it seemed easier to accept what was familiar than to manifest healing. For several months I forgot who I am. Then the day came that I looked at myself and knew I had multiple tools for healing and I wanted to heal.

Charles began the process of my healing a year prior to any tests when he used color and sound and Vogel Light Healing, concentrating on my first three chakras.

I continued to bathe my solar plexus in healing sound, color, and fragrances, in addition to wearing yellow clothing and increasing my intake of yellow foods...(I listened attentively in your class, Charles).

Always and throughout, whenever I was on Charles' or Steve's demo table I received healing where needed.

Healing progressed with the WIT machine which restored my energy long drained. I thank Kimberly and Kelly who reminded me of its importance in healing and Nikki who surrounded me with healing love each time she patiently plugged and unplugged me.

I received Light Energization Healing from two of my loving Delphi family: Joyce and Andy. Spiritual Healing came from many such as Victoria, Svetlana, Paul, Mary, Annette, Audrey, Julie, Alda and many others who placed me in healing circles.

RoHun™ was significant in my healing, and I am thankful for Judy's therapy; Janice, Linda, my RoHun™ classmates Christine, Corinne, and Valerie supported me in those enlightening processes, offering me love and patience. I am thankful for the tools my RoHun™ studies have given me to-date, for I have continued in the last two weeks processing and sending negativity to the light.

At Delphi I knew Kelly, Charee, Danielle looked after me, for they plied me with healthy keto-friendly foods to help establish a diet conducive to good health. They've provided delicious keto recipes to follow at home.

I'm thankful for guidance I receive from my Higher Self through meditation/prayer. I gained loved for Self sufficient to move past my challenge.

Monday, November 19, I had a second series of test conducted by head of hepatology, University of North Carolina. Following three hours in an MRI and blood tests, I received a call from the specialist.

As our Delphi family might expect, that evening, as I walked into the main building of Delphi to fill in as partner in a class, my cellphone rang. I was greeted with a "Hello" from my specialist who said, "I'm calling to give you the results of your tests."

Only five hours had transpired between my tests and his call. He continued, "The tests show what we expected from the original CT, previous tests, symptoms and labs: cirrhosis of the liver due to much scarring. Your spleen is enlarged significantly. But I am viewing the MRI and I see that now the liver is actually functioning almost like a normal liver. There are no signs of cancer and your platelet count is up. I feel with the right diet and exercise you can even reduce scarring."

...Isn't this amazing!!! GRATEFUL I AM.

Chapter 11

Marshall's Diary of Experiences

Preparation & Planning your Destination
Before the Death of your Physical Body.

By Marshall Smith and Patricia Hayes

Marshall's Diary of Experiences on The Astral Dimension are being channeled through and written by Patricia. Individual questions about death and Marshall's answers to them will appear as received throughout the book.

The following is an excerpt from Chapter 11
– Marshall's Diary

January 2, 2019 --- Patricia and Kelly Hayes in meditation with Marshall

"Because you are eternal beings, it's time to bring the true spirituality into the book, the essence of why you are able to live after the death of your physical body. If you can touch one person in your life with love, you have accomplished a mission. There are so few that know this. I'm speaking of the love of God. I'm not talking about the thought of love, but the true feeling of it. It's just as important to be loving with yourself as it is to be loving with others."

"It's easy to observe from here that people have a tendency to think they don't matter. Everyone matters or they wouldn't be on earth. The University of Mother Earth is the place where we learn. Souls are here on earth because they're ready for their next step. Each time you travel to earth you make a progressive step toward love, spiritual understanding, and knowing."

"Where I am, in the higher astral dimensions, it is not so much about learning as it is showing others. Being a spiritual guide so to speak. I enjoy working with individuals seeking spiritual knowledge much like I did on earth. Only now, I am able to give them a direct experience and firsthand look about life after death in the astral dimension. There are many guides such as myself, allowing individuals to feel them so they know there is something beyond earth. I was told that is the purpose of our book, for they will feel me as they are reading. This is our purpose. My Spiritual Instructors are masterminds on how this is accomplished. They are brilliant! People will feel things they have never felt before."

Marshall said to me, "I was with you today when you were typing. I knew you were, it was just flowing. I feel you very strong right now. Good, we'll continue. There are more and more spiritually aware ones coming and awakening every day. I was told for years that there were few people on earth that were spiritually aware. But now, the movement, the spiritual awareness movement is happening fast. People on earth are getting signals, signs and things they've not experienced before, causing them to begin to search for answers. We are preparing to reveal The Doors of Wisdom through which spiritual seekers can enter and walk through to heighten and shorten their time of discovery".

"There are many here that are preparing to come to earth as wayshowers. As we look at earth, we sense that it is difficult for people to feel loved because of all the commotion and the trivia that preoccupies them. Talk about that. Because if one doesn't feel love within, then one cannot allow it to flow to others. You must love yourself first. You must know the love within you has depth and breadth. Your love is then able to move into another's heart to allow them to know they are loved."

"People on earth have problems with trust because they have been disappointed and betrayed. But it is the learning center. Earth is the university of learning, to find out who you are and why you are. It's also the school of hard knocks. And that's how you find out, through earthly experience. Many will come, so welcome them with joy. Let there be no distance between your love and them. Over here you'll appreciate love so much more than on earth. You can look back and see how many people have never felt love. Your love and prayers should not only be for loved ones. It should also include those on earth to awaken to the energy of love, for it is really the only energy that matters. If one feels loved, one can do anything. There are many families on earth that have chosen to continue to be together on the astral dimension. And yes, beloved pets are included as well. I know that makes many of you happy! There are many beings that are working on this project. Those of us on the astral dimension are not heard by most of the people on earth. Only those that are sensitive enough to intuitively feel and hear us are able to share the truth about our continuing life with others.

This is why knowing the truth that we are Eternal beings is so important. It is best to live your life sharing your love so you are able to ascend to the highest planes of the astral dimension. For this is where you know that you are one with God and the heart within you is the heart of God. So never betray or speak badly about yourself. Love is your life force; it is who you are and why you are. I thought you would be interested to know that time here is quite different than how you experience time on earth. Time is not determined by planetary movements or by a clock. It operates according to sequence, the sequence of what you are doing. You wake up, you work, you get tired, and you go to sleep. I prefer it to the clock on earth.

It is most important to know that, in the Astral Dimension there is no time between thought and the results of your thoughts. If you're on the higher realms of the astral dimension, whatever your thought, you are instantly doing it in an orderly sequence. It is a place of instant thought arrangement and manifestation. To live on the higher realms, it is necessary to know love. You need to know love for yourself first and then be able to share that love within you with others. This has always been our purpose. It's called unconditional love and many people don't relate with that word. But they will when they read the book. They will understand the love of the brotherhood of mankind. For people on earth are far more aware and intelligent than they think. Lift them out of "little me ego" into the big or Higher Self, and their higher mind will inspire a new view of all life. I am always, your Marshall."

Patricia responds. "Hi Babe. I love being with you in our meditations. I feel your love embracing me as it always has. I thank God daily that we planned our destination so I knew exactly where to find you. We've always been at our best when we feel our spiritual purpose. And so we continue, you on your side and me on mine. You are my eternal Love, your Patricia."

A DELPHI EXPERIENCE

By Barbara Burk

I was told in a meditation in the Spring to go to Delphi in Sept. So I did. I brought a student/friend of mine with me, Sally Civileto.

Something I learned about Delphi are the Beings of Light that embrace you when you arrive. It truly gives you a feeling of being home. It creates a safe environment to grow, change and go within. When it is time to go these same Beings of Light will kick you out. When it was time to leave, we all knew. If they did not kick you out no one would ever leave.

The Healing Sanctuary is so powerful! When I entered, my feet started vibrating! It is a beautiful building with dedicated healers. If you have not been, you need to go!

I discovered the reason for my trip shortly after I arrived there. My fear of being myself was shown to me. I had given my power over to one of my brothers, not just in this life but many others. I was able to let go of my fear of being myself and to heal many lifetimes that had come forward as well. I have all of my power back and it feels so good!

A message Marshall gave me while I was there was this, "The smallest action can have the greatest impact." That is so true. Think of being kind to someone and how it can change their life.

Blessings, Barbara Burk

INNER SANCTUARY TRAINING

A First Time Delphi Experience

By Sally Civiletto

I went to Delphi with my dear friend Barbara Burk who is a former student. I was so excited to see the place that I have heard so much about. I have taken classes from Barbara and she often mentions Delphi. I could only imagine what the place was like.

Well let me tell you, it was more than I could ever have imagined. Immediately, I could feel the love and the serenity of the place. We arrived late Thursday evening September 6th.

We wanted to be there for the Healing Sanctuary on Friday evening. On the way there Barbara told me about the building we were staying in which was Arthur Ford Hall. She explained that Arthur is a character and once locked a student out of his room in his underwear. That didn't frighten me but I did tell Arthur "look just don't scare me".

So I went to bed and, being in a new place, I didn't sleep very well. And about the time I did fall asleep, the alarm on my phone went off! I had not set it because I was on vacation, so I think that was Arthur's way of welcoming me!

Barbara and I went to the office to pay for our rooms and I met Steve. He gave me a hug that was the best hug I have ever felt and he said, "Welcome Home". I was overwhelmed. We looked around the beautiful shop there and met Bruce who was so helpful.

Friday evening, we went to the Healing Sanctuary. When I walked in I was filled with a feeling of holiness and spiritual blessings. Pretty soon a lovely lady named Judy came and spoke with everyone. She was filled with love and light.

When it came to my turn, I was taken back into the healing pyramid where I sat in an area with many crystals and candles, and waited for the healer to be ready for me.

Soon I was led back to the table and as I lay there I absorbed the energy and the love that was present. When I was finished I was led to another area where I was given water and Judy came and talked softly to me about love and spirit. Such a surreal feeling.

We left and, as we went past the woods, we were taking pictures. The number of orbs present in the pictures was incredible. We went to RoHun™ Hall where Barbara said there were usually many orbs. Well, we had something even more extraordinary happen!

As we were standing on the balcony, all of a sudden we saw flashes of light in the sky. Not lightning, because there were a zillion stars in the sky, but flashes here and there just going all over the place. Barbara said the Brotherhood of Light was there and they wanted to tell us to continue to "hold the light". They repeated it about 3 times. I was honored and humbled to be part of this.

The next morning, we had a couple of healing sessions and met a beautiful young lady named Charee. Then Barbara and I went down to the river and she did a video recording on her camera. You can see what appeared because Barbara posted it on the Delphi Lightworkers website.

On Monday we went to the office and I was fortunate enough to meet Kelly who was so sweet. Then we met with Janice and had a wonderful visit with her.

Since my visit to Delphi my creative energies have been going full speed. I feel so connected to spirit and I have been getting clearer messages. I am also listening and meditating more. I am so thankful to Barbara and everyone at Delphi for allowing me to experience the energy there. It was probably one of the most memorable experiences I have had. My life has definitely changed.

Needless to say my experience at Delphi was more than I could have imagined, everyone was so welcoming and loving. It was magical, mystical and healing. I know my spirit will be called to return.

Sincerely, Sally Civiletto

Tami Sue Martin

April 10, 1958 - June 6, 2018

Our beautiful sister Tami was called home this year. She spent her days spreading positivity and love wherever she went. Tami was a strong woman and although she had a long battle with cancer you would never know by her positive attitude.

Deyann Davis

May 25, 1950 - November 29, 2018

I had the privilege of meeting and working with Deyann Davis when she first came to Delphi for In-Depth Channeling in 2005. I got to know her on a personal level when she came to Spiritual Anatomy and Energization class in 2007. Deyann and I shared a cosmic connection. I remember so clearly how she and I would meet at 10:00 at night for a special meditation to meet Mauricio Panisset, where he would share his knowledge and open us to new experiences. The energy was always very high. After the meditation each of us would journal. The next morning we would talk and compare our experiences. We were always one.

I will miss her wisdom, her knowledge, her love of sharing, and her exquisite light. I know that her exquisite light touched many, not just me. All of those that she touched with her light will carry her spirit on Earth. I have a feeling those of us who knew her will see her again. Her work in another dimension continues.

We love you Deyann. See you on the other side, Kimberly.

I would like to acknowledge and thank Beth Waller for keeping us informed of Deyann. I was deeply humbled to be a part of her crossing.

Lebanon Connection

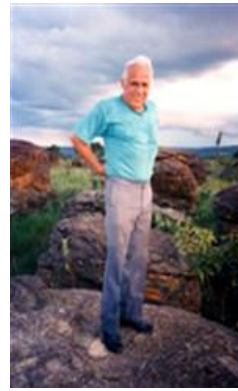

Last Saturday, I hosted a gathering for a group that Maya has created on Wassap for everyone from Lebanon who went to Delphi.

It was the first time we all met in person, and we all engaged in memories of the wonderful Teachers and the enchanted Delphi, temple, and gardens, and the great life transformation experience we had.

Then on Monday, Dina highlighted her graduation and how timely the gathering was for an amazing way to celebrate collectively!

I am attaching here our group photo, saying hi to all of you, and sending much love from all of us!

Much, much, love!
Mirvat

The Mauricio Panisset Temple of Healing

The Mauricio Panisset Healing Sanctuary at Delphi was inspired by and is dedicated to the memory of this wonderful man and great spiritual being. Possessing the gift of "Light", as described by Shirley MacLaine in her book Going Within, Mauricio dedicated his life in service to God and to his fellow man. His humility, love and grace will always remain a shining example to each of us, as will his gifts of light and healing which he shares on an on-going basis with all seekers of light and the students of Delphi. Join us each month in the mountains as the devoted and gifted Healers of Delphi channel the energies of Love, Light & Healing for your spiritual, mental, emotional and physical needs. Individual healing sessions are offered without charge on the first Friday of each month (Except January) at 7:30p.m. Everyone is welcome. Please wear white clothing. Call or email for more information.

Hello, Patricia,

First, I want to genuinely thank you for helping me get started on my spiritual path through the excellent Delphi University classes, and also for providing a significant nudge to get me started on my first book "Healing Body, Mind and Spirit" published by Llewellyn in 2003.

Secondly, I am in the process of writing another book (my fifth); its working title is "The Art Of Spiritual Communication: Connecting With Your Higher Wisdom." In it, I plan to describe several ways that spiritual communications can be learned and practiced, and Entura Art is certainly one of those to be discussed. I would like your permission to quote some of the attached description in this forthcoming book that will hopefully be published either this year or next. If you wish to add other descriptive information, please forward it to me and I would gladly include it as well.

Thirdly, I also thank you for the wonderful Entura Art picture you drew of my energy field in 1997 - it has been hanging in my office every day since I moved back to Chehalis, WA in 1998. Although I retired from my practice of energy healing after a stroke in 2015, I am obviously still at the computer sharing what I have learned from all my wonderful teachers at Delphi and, of course, my students and clients.

Please say Hi to Kimberly, Charles, Janice and Kelly for me!

Love and light, Howard Batie

Dr. Massey's Qigong 1 Weekend Symposium

Returning to Delphi University so that you can discover how to supercharge your health, your energy and your energy therapies.

The basis of all healing is energy and more is generally better. Just as more electricity moves through thicker wires, Qigong can make you that "thicker wire" and more energy can flow through you!

Qigong is the combination of two words...Qi meaning "life energy" and gong meaning "to develop". Qigong breathing exercises are the fastest way to develop your life's energy...to improve your health and become "that" energy healer who gets consistent results.

Qigong Seminar Last Summer (2018)

- "Looking forward to your next class - I got so much out of this one - the breathing so important to my energy and vibration level." Lynn S.
- "Your Chi Gong class was a magnificent experience! I can attest to the healing of my leg! I am practicing Chi Gong everyday...much more relaxed, I feel more centered, energetic and I know it will work wonders." Sylvia F
- "I first want to say how very much I enjoyed the workshop...wouldn't have missed the experience for anything...your organization abilities were excellent...This morning I felt strong qi develop...felt very tingly in my hands and a sensation of soft, taffy like energy as I moved my hands apart." Cheryl P
- Impressive...We are ready for (Qigong) #2...Much love to you both for your dedication, talent and ability to bring something new to your students! Janice H.

In Asia, Qigong breathing techniques are so valued for maintaining health and self-healing that for thousands of years they were only passed from teacher to select student. Today these secret Qigong healing techniques are available to you.

- Improve physical and mental health with a stronger connection to spirit
- Slow aging...Qigong breathing dramatically slows cellular aging (medical research)
- Simply become healthier by reducing chronic illnesses
- Connect with nature (tree Qigong taught in this seminar)
- Enhance psychic abilities - energy opens the door to greater experiences and information
- Stronger and more consistent energy healing results for self and others
- Really feel energy - it's texture, weight, mass, shape, gender (energy has gender)
- Meditation and concentration becomes easier
- See energy fields better - easier to focus your energy and "see" energy fields

Qigong 1 Symposium

A weekend consisting of interesting and fun lectures on the current medical and physical science and 2,000 years of health benefits of Qigong by Patrick Massey MD PhD MhD. Learn powerful Qigong breathing techniques for healing of self and others as well as connecting directly with nature (Qigong tree meditation).

by Linda B. Griffith

A Revolutionary Way of Using Voyager Tarot Intuition Cards for the 21st Century For Beginners or Experts
You've never experienced Tarot like this before!

The VOYAGER TAROT . . .

Reveals the whole journey of life and knowing what you want. Inspires the passion and perspective to complete your mission. Teaches how to use this practical and awe inspiring map of higher consciousness. The Voyager Tarot is not fortune telling, but fortune creation as you learn how to use this proactive tool for gaining insights and results.

- τ Change your life
- τ Achieve your visions and dreams
- τ Create the success you desire
- τ Forecast your future
- τ Reveal secrets of your subconscious
- τ Gain spiritual inspiration

Navigate all aspects of your life with confidence and clarity.

With Your Voyager Tarot Teacher, Guide, and Mentor Linda B. Griffith leading the way, you will learn the sophisticated methods of Voyager Tarot and experience a wondrous, playful, friendly, and expansive understanding of self and others. On top of all this... it's a Career Opportunity! Become a Certified Voyager Tarot Counselor!

Upon completion of this workshop and an additional 24 hours of consultations and Tarot readings, you will be qualified as a certified Voyager Tarot Consultant.

Become Your Own ORACLE!

Instructor Linda Griffith

VOYAGER TAROT ∞ Mindfulness Psychology

This revolutionary new way of using the ancient art of Tarot is a new meta-psychology. It is a path for becoming the "Universal Human" by "doing it yourself" through a "transformative mindfulness practice"; for living whole through a healthy mind, body, heart and soul, and for being successful in life through interactive and psychological "roadmaps" which Voyager can provide. This "educating" style of counseling yourself and others through the Cards has re-imagined and reinvented psychology as a self-defining, self-supporting, self-guiding and self- navigation tool for the 21st century.

Linda Griffith ~ Internationally Known Teacher & Intuitive
Linda is a master reader and teacher of the Voyager Tarot cards. She has studied and taught with the originator of the Voyager Tarot, James Wanless, for many years. She combines her depth of metaphysical knowledge and wisdom together with the beauty and energies of the symbols on the cards into a unique, personal, inspiring, and fulfilling workshop and readings. She weaves the many aspects of her students/client's life into a cohesive understanding of where they are, where they are going and why. Be prepared to be inspired and have fun!!!!

In addition to being a gifted teacher and reader, Linda is a Doctor of Metaphysics and RoHun therapy. As the Co-creator of the Emotional Literacy program she is an international speaker and workshop leader. Most importantly, Linda has dedicated her life her to promoting peace, love, and conscious living throughout the world.

Looks of Love from the Past...

Our Beloved

BELLA CURCIO

February 23, 2004 - October 8 2018

By: Renee Garrick

“Beautiful, beautiful Bella...such an angelic and beloved fur-Being”

“I feel blessed that I was able to meet her during the 2016 Energy class”

- Tena Reed

“Will miss seeing Bella during my Delphi trips”

- Julie DoBias

“I love the Bahamas” Bella

“I have so many amazing memories of her throughout the 9 years of my studies at Delphi. She brought such an untouchable, innocent purity and profound unconditional love to every class, healing and event. I will never forget how nervous I was before my first Light Energization, she was so amazing and comforted me. Even lying under the table during the session.” - Julie Layne Dietrich

“She is a sweet soul. I loved being welcomed by her at Delphi.” Ed Carlton

“The depth of our grief is in direct relation to the depth of our love”

- Frances Keller

"Bella was such a beautiful soul and she always brought smiles when we saw her enter the classroom. Her presence will surely be missed by all."

-Pam Walker

"Bella was so sweet and loving. She definitely made my time at Delphi more beautiful with her sweet and loving presence." - MaryJo Briggs-Austin

"Bella was a special guest in Lily Dale too." - Jacqueline Lunger

"I am truly blessed that I got to meet Bella when I attended Delphi back in the year 2012. I'm glad I got to touch and pet her. Thank you for sharing Bella with your Delphi family."

- JoAnn Brancaccio Knoss

"Bella was the first friend I made at Delphi" -David Robertson

"You both gave each other such a beautiful life. I am so sure she looks down with so much gratitude as you do to her. The telepathy between the two of you was like no other that I have ever seen before. You were one with each other in so many ways. What a beautiful relationship to celebrate. The angels must be singing for her today as she enters through the gateway"

- Katie S Kyleen

"Beautiful Bella. She sat in with me in quite a few classes and shared her loving, calm energy."

- Alyson Tuxworth
